

Author: ShadyOldLady

A tour of the sites that were close to Lady Diana Spencer's heart, where she lived, and what she knew. The London that she loved.

1. Garrards Jewellers, 24 Albemarle Street, Mayfair

The shop where Prince Charles bought Diana's engagement ring.

Notes:

2. Princess Diana's Flat, 60 Coleherne Court, Earl's Court

The flat that Diana bought and lived in with 3 flat mates.

Notes:

3. Buckingham Palace, 13 Buckingham Palace Road

The official residence and HQ of the Queen.

Notes:

4. St Paul's Cathedral, The Chapter House, St Paul's Churchyard, London

Wren's masterpiece and oldest classic dominant symbol of London.

Notes:

5. Westminster Abbey, Dean's Yard, Westminster

This is where Coronations have been held for hundreds of years.

Notes:

6. St Mary's Hospital, Praed Street, Paddington

The place where heroin was discovered.

Notes:

7. Kensington Palace, Palace Avenue, Kensington

A royal palace from many years and home to Charles & Diana.

Notes:

8. Spencer House, 27 St James's Place, Mayfair

A magnificent 18th century private palace.

Notes: