An amazing tour of some of the houses of Hollywood's cinema legends, all in merry old London!

1. Elizabeth Taylor was born here, 8 Wildwood Road, Hampstead
   This is where actress Liz Taylor lived until she was 7.
   Notes:

2. Lawrence Olivier's Lovepad, 4 Christchurch Street, Chelsea, London
   This is where Lawrence Olivier and Vivien Leigh made a love nest
   Notes:

3. John Wayne smashed up this pub!, 10-12 Leadenhall Market
   John Wayne had a fight here in 1975 film Brannigan
   Notes:

   The cinematic hotel that never was a real hotel.
   Notes:

5. Vivien Leigh lived here, 53 Eaton Square, Belgravia, London
   Award winning actress Vivien Leigh lived and died here.
   Notes:

6. Charlie Chaplin's birthplace, East Street, Kennington, London
   This is where Charlie Chaplin was born and where he grew up.
   Notes:

7. Where Judy Garland Died, 4 Cadogan Lane, Chelsea
   Judy Garland's final home and place where she overdosed.
   Notes:

   The scene of Anthony Hopkins bizarre coincidence story.
   Notes:
9. Home to Ava Gardner, Ennismore Gardens, Kensington
This is the location of Hollywood legend Ava Gardner's flat

Notes: