

Author: madtraveller

Scary walk

1. The London Dungeons, 28-34 Tooley Street, London

The gruesome theme park of horror and grisly London history.

Notes:

2. Tyburn Convent, 8 Hyde Park Place

Catholic retreat on the Bayswater Road and very weird and spooky

Notes:

3. The Clink, Clink Street, London

This is where The infamous Clink once stood, notorious prison.

Notes:

4. The Tower of London, Tower of London

For nearly 800 years, best place to meet a grisly death.

Notes:

5. Ripper Murder: Catherine Eddowes, Mitre Square, Shoreditch

This is where Jack the Ripper's fourth victim was found.

Notes:

6. Mrs Lovett's Pie House, Bell Yard, London

This is where Sweeney Todd's victims ended up - yum!

Notes:

7. The Demon Barber of Fleet Street, 186 Fleet Street, London

This is where Demon Barber Sweeney Todd had his shop.

Notes:

8. The Ubiquitous Undead Walk, Junction Road, London

Take a walk to find out the history of Vampires in North London

Notes:

9. Murderer Dennis Nilsens Home, 23 Cranley Gardens, Muswell Hill

The home and place of arrest of serial killer Dennis Nilsen.

Notes:

10. The Screaming Spectre, Farringdon Station

The screaming ghost of a murdered girl haunts here.

Notes:

11. The Black Dog of Newgate, Amen Court, Westminster, London

The black dog of newgate is a horrid ghost story!

Notes:

12. Did Jack the Ripper live here?, 3 Sion Square, Whitechapel, London

One of the strongest Jack the Ripper suspects lived here.

Notes:

13. The Tyburn Tree, Bayswater Road, London

The site of the Tyburn Tree, public hanging place for thousands.

Notes:

14. Newgate Execution Scaffold, Old Bailey, London

This is where Newgate's execution's took place.

Notes:

15. Ripper Murder: Marie Jeanette, 13 Miller's Court, Whitechapel

The scene of the last murder by Jack the Ripper.

Notes:

16. Ripper's First Victim, Durward Street, Whitechapel

The first likely Jack the Ripper victim.

Notes:

17. World's First Car Death, Crystal Palace Grounds

The location of the World's first ever death by car.

Notes:

18. Museum of body parts..., 35-43 Lincoln's Inn Fields

The Hunterian Museum - 4 centuries' worth of body parts...

Notes:

19. Acid Murderer worked here, 79 Gloucester Road, Kensington, London

The Vampire of Kensington John Haigh worked here in the 1940's.

Notes:

20. Charing Cross Trunk Murder, Charing Cross Station, The Strand, London

The lost luggage dept found a trunk with the remains of a woman.

Notes:

21. Dr Crippen's Murder Home, 39 Hilldrop Crescent, Holloway, London

This is where Dr Crippen murdered, mutilated and buried his wife

Notes:

22. Ghost of the Hanging Judge, Town of Ramsgate Pub, Wapping

Ghost of the George Geoffreys seen repeatedly on the stairs here

Notes:

23. Shady Old Lady Ghost, Beacontree Road, Wanstead

The shade of an old lady haunts a property on this road.

Notes:

24. Wanstead Glowing Headstone, City of London Cemetery, Wanstead

A repeatedly glowing headstone at night here scared locals.

Notes: