

Author: adrians

A tour of the notorious places that have seen anarchy, riots and looting in London over the years.

1. John Wilkes' House Riots, 35 Grosvenor Square

This is where politician John Wilkes's house was riot damaged.

Notes:

2. Notting Hill Race Riots, Latimer Road, London

The source of the so-called 1958 Notting Hill 'race riots'.

Notes:

3. St Barnabas Preaching Riots, St Barnabas Street, Pimlico

The first Oxford Movement church and scene of riots.

Notes:

4. The Battle of Cable Street, Cable Street, London

It was here that Oswald Mosely's fascist march was stopped.

Notes:

5. The Battle of Waterloo 2, 81 Waterloo Road, Waterloo

This is where 8 gang members were killed in a riot in 1927

Notes:

6. The Start of the 2011 Riots, Ferry Lane, Tottenham

This is where the 2011 London Summer riots all began.

Notes:

7. Broadwater Farm, Willan Road, Tottenham

This is where 1985's Broadwater Farm Riots occurred.

Notes:

8. The Shop the Looters Ignored, 70-72 St John's Road, Clapham

The bookshop that looters didn't even touch.

Notes:

9. House of Reeves, 120 Church Street, Croydon

The iconic furniture shop destroyed in the 2011 riots.

Notes: