Not an official Arsenal tour of the Emirates but a wider London-wide tour of some of the sites for Gunners fans to visit. Some historic, some Highbury legends based, some more modern sites of interest such as the new ground!

1. Arsenal's Old Ground, *Off Highbury Park Road

Once a footie ground, now a class place to live

Notes:

2. Arsenal's old Invicta Ground, *Hector Street, Plumstead

The site of Arsenal FC's first ever ground.

Notes:

3. Herbert Chapman lived here, *6 Haslemere Avenue, Hendon, London

Arsenal's legendary manager Herbert Chapman lived and died here.

Notes:

4. Arsenal's Emirates Stadium, *Arsenal Emirates Stadium, Avenell Road

The home of Arsenal Football Club.

Notes:

5. Peter Storey's Pub, *113 Southgate Road, Islington

The pub that Arsenal hardman Peter Storey owned in the 1970's.

Notes:

6. The Royal Oak, *83 Woodman St, London

This is where the Arsenal FC founders named the club Arsenal.

Notes:

7. Tony Adams lived here, *6 Foxlands Road, Dagenham

The house Tony Adams grew up in before he became an Arsenal star
