

Author: adrians

There are some great murals in and around London, and we could do with some more!

1. Hackney Peace Carnival Mural, Dalston Lane, London

The beautiful musical mural on Dalston Lane.

Notes:

2. Notre Dame de France, 5 Leicester Place, Leicester Square

An extraordinary church bombed out in the 1940s

Notes:

3. Riders of the Apocalypse, Sanford Street, Cold Blow Lane, Lewisham, London

This is the site of great mural Riders of the Apocalypse.

Notes:

4. The Cable Street Mural, 236 Cable Street, London

One of the best loved anti-fascist murals in London.

Notes:

5. The Fitzrovia Mural, Whitfield Gardens, Fitzrovia, London

One of London's most famous murals - now a tad faded.

Notes:

6. The Soho Mural, Noel Street, London

This is the mural inspired by Shelley's Ode to the West Wind

Notes:

7. The Spirit of Soho, Broadwick Street, Soho, London

A most unusual gothic house in north London suburbia.

Notes:

8. Highbury Mural, 18 Highbury Grove, Highbury, Islington

Lovely nature mural in Highbury.

Notes:

9. Bellefield Road Mural 2, Bellefield Road

Opposite the academy, a mural with a coastal feel

Notes:

10. Bellefields Road Mural 1, Bellefields Road

Painted in 1987, an abstract piece of London art

Notes: