

Author: brian

This ancient village which stretches between the Tower of London and Limehouse has always been associated with seafarers. They t

1. The Ivory House, St Katherines Dock, Tower Hamlets, London

Ivory House, centre of the illustrious Victorian ivory trade.

Notes:

2. Pirates Execution Dock, Off Wapping High Street, Wapping, London

The Pirates Execution Dock where Captain Kidd was drowned.

Notes:

3. Prospect of Whitby, 57 Wapping Wall

Dating from 1520, one of the most famous pubs in London

Notes:

4. Wapping Food Power Station, Wapping Hydraulic Power Station, Wapping Wall

Eat in this power station converted to restaurant.

Notes:

5. Tower Hill, Nr Tower Hill Tube Station

Many famous people were executed here.

Notes:

6. St Katherine's Dock Marina, Off Smithfield

Thomas Telford constructed this dock back in 1828

Notes:

7. Wapping Pier Head, Off Wapping High Street

Designed by John Rennie in 1805

Notes:

8. Wapping Old Stairs, Nr Wapping high Street

Stairs with a gruesome history - What a whopper!

Notes:

9. St John's Churchyard, Nr Wapping Gardens

This was the churchyard of St John's Wapping

Notes:

10. River Police Boatyard, Nr Wapping Rose Garden

Home to the worlds first uniformed police force

Notes:

11. Captain Kidd Public House, Off Wapping Rose Garden

Home to a drink and a famous Pirate

Notes:

12. Wapping Station, Nr Wapping Rose Garden

An Engineering breakthrough by Marc Brunel since 1824

Notes:

13. Shadwell Basin, Off Glamis Road

The last operating hydraulic pumping station in the world?

Notes: