

Author: HCS Shannon

Locations in the Victorian art movement, but not limited to the original Brotherhood members as the title might lead you to believe

1. Artist Millais Lived & Died here, 2 Palace Gate, Kensington, London

This is where prolific artist Millais lived and died.

Notes:

2. William Morris' House & Gallery, Lloyd Park, Forest Road, London

William 'Wallpaper' Morris's home turned gallery.

Notes:

3. Mammoth in Chelsea, 195 King's Road, Chelsea, London

This is where a Mammoth's tooth was found in 1901.

Notes:

4. William Morris's Furniture, 17 Red Lion Square, Bloomsbury, London

This is where William Morris designed his first furniture.

Notes:

5. John Ruskin born here, 54 Hunter Street, Holborn

Birthplace of a English art critic and social thinker

Notes:

6. St Barnabas Preaching Riots, St Barnabas Street, Pimlico

The first Oxford Movement church and scene of riots.

Notes:

7. Tennyson and Townshend, Chapel House, Montpelier Row, Twickenham

This is where Sir Alfred Lord Tennyson lived as poet laureate.

Notes:

8. Rossetti's Grave Digging, Highgate Cemetery, London

This is where Dante Gabriel Rossetti opened his wife's coffin.

Notes:

9. Tate Britain, Sugar & Prison!, Millbank, London

The Tate Britain is on the site of Millbank Prison

Notes:

10. Leighton House & Arab Hall, Leighton House Museum, 12 Holland Park Road

The studio-home of the Victorian artist Frederic Lord Leighton.

Notes:

11. William Morris tutored here, Hoe Street, Walthamstow

The place where the young William Morris was tutored.

Notes:

12. The Foundling Museum, 40 Brunswick Square, London

This is where London's first home for abandoned children is.

Notes:

13. The Cross Keys, 1 Lawrence Street, Chelsea

One of Chelsea's oldest boozers, Bob Marley's favourite.

Notes:

14. Butterfield's Gothic All Saints, Margaret Street, London

This is one of William Butterfield's gothic masterpieces.

Notes:

15. William Morris' Birthplace, Elm House, 341/343 Forest Road, Walthamstow

Designer William Morris was born opposite the fire station here.

Notes:

16. Ophelia's River, off Church Road

This is the river used in John Millais' painting Ophelia

Notes:

17. Birthplace of the Pre-Raphaelite, Cavendish College

The Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood was formed here in 1848

Notes:

18. Muse Elizabeth Siddal born here, 7 Greville Street, Holborn, London

Pre-raphaelite model Lizzie Siddal was born here.

Notes:

19. William Morris' Red House, Red House Lane

Now a National Trust Musuem and well worth a visit

Notes: