

Author: adrians

Charlie Chaplin grew up on the tough streets of London - check out where in our exclusive tour of Chaplins formative locations.

1. Charlie Chaplin lived here, 39 Methley Street, Kennington

The house where Charlie Chaplin lived with his mother.

Notes:

2. Charlie Chaplin's birthplace, East Street, Kennington, London

This is where Charlie Chaplin was born and where he grew up.

Notes:

3. Taggs 'Karsino' Island, Taggs Island, River Thames, Hampton, London

Taggs Island is a dark horse, with a colourful past.

Notes:

4. The Fat Boy of Peckham, Colegrove Road, Peckham, London

This is where larger than life comedian John Trunley was born.

Notes:

5. The Salisbury Hotel...Chaplin, 1 Grand Parade, Green Lanes

In this very pub, Robert Downey Jr starred in the film Chaplin.

Notes:

6. A House of Laughter, Glenshaw Mansions, Brixton Road / Mowll Street

Charlie Chaplin and Max Wall shared a bathroom here

Notes:

7. Charlie Chaplin lived here, 39 Methley Street, Kennington

The house where Charlie Chaplin lived with his mother.

Notes:

8. Koko London, 1A Camden High Street, Camden, London

This old theatre/cinema/music hall saw Charlie Chaplin live!

Notes:

9. St Johns Church, 18 Larcom Street, Walworth, London

The church where Charlie Chaplins parents were married

Notes:

10. The Queen's Head, 71 Black Prince Road, Lambeth

This is the pub where Charlie Chaplin's Uncle was landlord.

Notes:

11. Uncle Gandhi and his goat, Kingsley Hall, Powis Road, London

Mahatma Gandhi stayed here at Kingsley Hall with his goat

Notes:

12. A unique Victorian Townhouse, 18 Stafford Terrace

Home to the cartoonist Edward Linley Sambourne.

Notes: