

Author: HCS Shannon

If you don't want to visit Abbey Road for the umpteenth time!

1. The school for Brats, 60 The Crescent

School to the stars - Amy, Leona and Kate attended here.

Notes:

2. Sex Pistols Slashing, 109 Green Lanes, Stoke Newington, London

This is where the Sex Pistols Johnny Rotten was slashed.

Notes:

3. Sid Vicious' Squat, 39 New Court, Lutton Terrace, Hampstead

This was where Sid Vicious and Johnny Rotten squatted.

Notes:

4. Tony Visconti once lived Here, Melrose Terrace, Hammersmith

He had a home 16 track studio where he mixed 'Bowie' & 'Sparks'

Notes:

5. Bela Bartok stayed here, 7 Sydney Place, South Kensington

This is where Bela Bartok stayed during his visit to London.

Notes:

6. Grims Dyke, Old Redding, Harrow Weald, Middlesex

WS Gilbert's Grims Dyke where he lived and died.

Notes:

7. Live Music with a but More, 311 Kilburn High Road

Live music for those who care about budding musicians

Notes:

8. It was all a bit of a Blur, Whitechapel Road

The inventor of Britpop was born here in 1968 - a good year

Notes:

9. Pizza & Jazz... Nice!, 10 Dean Street, Soho

Top fodder and even better Jazz tunes - nice!

Notes:

10. The Hope and Anchor, 207 Upper Street, Islington, London

The rock music pub that spawned Stiff Records

Notes:

11. The London Astoria. RIP, 157 Charing Cross Road

Legendary Rock Venue makes way for Crossrail.

Notes:

12. Jazz After Dark, 9 Greek Street, Soho, London

Tiny jazz club has hosted Greta Garbo, and Pete Doherty!

Notes:

13. Cooke's Pie and Mash Shop, 48 Goldhawk Road

Pie & Mash Shop and Quadrophenia in the Heart of Shepherds Bush

Notes:

14. The Stones rehearsed Here, 10/11 Great Newport Street

Once a place for bands to rehearse . the Rolling Stones included

Notes:

15. The Stones at the Red Lion, 265 High Street, Sutton

Now called The Winning Post, the pub that discovered the Stones

Notes:

16. Battersea Sabotage, 188 Kirtling Street, Battersea

A classic London icon fuelled on Coal, Cinema and Redevelopment

Notes:

17. A Magic School of Rock, Greenford Road, Greenford

A magic school for indie rockers The Magic Numbers

Notes:

18. Mick Jones and London's Burning, Wilmcote House, Warwick Estate

Mick Jones's old apartment, inspiration for London's Burning.

Notes:

19. Pink Floyd house Auctioned, 39 Stanhope Gardens, Highgate

Once home to Pink Floyd and some great musical moments

Notes:

20. Radio London: Handels Past, 35-36 Marylebone High Street, London

The site of spectacular society parties and Handels music.

Notes:

21. Home to a Proms Man, 4 Elsworthy Road, Belsize Park

Founder of the BBC Proms once lived in this house

Notes:

22. The English Elvis arrived here, Praed Street, Paddington

Elvis - 'Costello' that is - entered the world here

Notes:

23. A Colosseum in Watford, Rickmansworth Road

Responsible for the 'Lord of the Rings' soundtracks

Notes: