

Author: JeremyT

All about the legend that is Sir Michael Caine

1. A Bleak Childhood Home, 14 Urlwin Street, off Camberwell Road

Sir Michael Caine's first childhood home

Notes:

2. Harry Palmer's Ipress File Flat, 9 Stanlake Villas, Shepherd's Bush, London

This is the location of Harry Palmer's flat in The Ipress File

Notes:

3. Michael Caine was born here, St Olaves Hospital, Bermondsey, South London

Michael Caine was born here, not a lot of people know that.

Notes:

4. School to a Fabulous Londoner, Mollison Drive, Wallington

Sir Michael Caine attended this school up to his 16th birthday

Notes:

5. Stella Street, Hartswood Road, London

This is where BBC comedy Stella Street was filmed.

Notes:

6. The first Micklewhite Home, 283 Weston Street

Sir Michael Caine was a sparkle in his parents eye here

Notes:

7. Michael Caine's Perfect Robot, 54 Camberwell Road

A Robot, a club, and an acting talent that was just starting out

Notes:

8. Two Legends under One Roof, 12 Ennismore Gardens, Knightsbridge

Home to Michael Caine and Terrence Stamp in 1960

Notes:

9. Home to Alfie, 22 St Stephen's Gardens, Bayswater

A bachelor pad for Alfie and Michael Caine

Notes:

10. Harry Palmer's Parking Spot, Cumberland Gate, Marble Arch

A car-park with some serious acting credentials

Notes:

11. Poitier's Favourite Restaurant, 27 Devonshire Street

Michael Caine and Sidney Poitier used to dine here

Notes:

12. Marco's Stag Do, 43 Upper Brook Street

This is where Marco Pierre White had his stag do

Notes:

13. A Disco for the Swinging Sixties, 7 Leicester Place, off Leicester Square

The Best Disco Ever - according to Sir Michael Caine

Notes:

14. Les Ambassadeurs, 5 Hamilton Place

Over supper here, Sir Michael Caine's career was born

Notes:

15. Italian Job: Charlie's Flat, 18 Denbigh Close, Notting Hill

Charlie's classic sixties London flat in The Italian Job.

Notes: