

Author: ShadyOldLady

A tour of some of the best secret James Bond related locations in London. Shaken Not Stirred.

1. A Licence to Write, 22 Ebury Street, Westminster

Ian Fleming, the creator of James Bond, lived here

Notes:

2. Bond and the Traffic Wardens, Wapping Lane, Wapping, London

Bond splashing The World is Not Enough traffic wardens here.

Notes:

3. Cafe de Paris, 4 Coventry Street, Piccadilly

Piccadillys home to the stars and scene of massive wartime bomb

Notes:

4. Former Annie McCall Hospital, McCall Close, Jeffreys Road

Roger Moore was born here

Notes:

5. James Bond's House, Royal Avenue, Chelsea

This is where James Bond lived, according to Ian Fleming.

Notes:

6. Roger Moore lived here, 4 Aldebert Terrace, Stockwell

Roger Moore spent his early years here in this house.

Notes:

7. Roger Moore was born here, 37-39 Jeffreys Road, Stockwell

The place where Sir Roger Moore was born.

Notes:

8. Les Ambassadeurs, 5 Hamilton Place

Over supper here, Sir Michael Caine's career was born

Notes:

9. Dukes and Bond, *St. James's Place, St. James

The bar that inspired the Bond line 'shaken, not stirred'.

Notes: