

Author: HCS Shannon

In case you live under a rock, Doctor Who is one of the longest running Science-Fiction shows in the world, following the adventures of a time-traveling alien hero.

1. BBC TV Centre, Wood Lane, London

This is where the BBC television programmes are made.

Notes:

2. A gilded-gold Memorial, Albert Memorial, Kensington Gardens, Kensington

Since 1861, a testament to a great royal life

Notes:

3. Royal Albert Hall, Kensington Gore

1871, Queen Victoria opened the venue dedicated to her husband

Notes:

4. Christmas under Nelson, Trafalgar Square

Since 1947, Norway has supplied Trafalgar's Christmas Tree

Notes:

5. Nelson's Column, Trafalgar Square

The focal point of the Square, a remarkable Nelson tribute.

Notes:

6. Westminster Bridge, Westminster and South Bank

Westminster Bridge is the oldest bridge in use in London.

Notes:

7. Just add Water, Albert Embankment

Classic films made even better by the River Thames

Notes:

8. St Katherine's Dock Marina, Off Smithfield

Thomas Telford constructed this dock back in 1828

Notes:

9. The BBC...visually gorgeous, Regent Street

BBC - on Regent Street - gorgeous architecture.

Notes:

10. Post Office Tower, 60 Cleveland Street, Fitzrovia

177 metres of pure technical innovation with a film pedigree

Notes:

11. Trinkets, Gems and Tourists, Covent Garden

Culture, retail, art, fun and the unknown in this melting pot

Notes:

12. The Royal Opera House, Covent Garden

One of the oldest sites for theatre in London.

Notes:

13. Buckingham Palace, 13 Buckingham Palace Road

The official residence and HQ of the Queen.

Notes:

14. St Paul's Cathedral, The Chapter House, St Paul's Churchyard, London

Wren's masterpiece and oldest classic dominant symbol of London.

Notes:

15. Tower Bridge, Tower Bridge Road, Southwark

One of London's most iconic bridges.

Notes:

16. The Tower of London, Tower of London

For nearly 800 years, best place to meet a grisly death.

Notes:

17. Westminster Abbey, Dean's Yard, Westminster

This is where Coronations have been held for hundreds of years.

Notes:

18. Australia House & Harry Potter, Strand

Harry Potter's Bank... 'Gringotts Bank' from the film series

Notes:

19. Doctor Who at Earls Court, Earls Court Tube Station

The only blue police box on show outside a film studio

Notes:

20. Chislehurst Caves, The Chalk Pit, Old Hill, Chislehurst

Vast cave complex used as air raid shelters and film locations.

Notes:

21. The Palace Theatre, Cambridge Circus, Shaftesbury Avenue

The place where Andrew Lloyd Webber wrote Phantom of the Opera.

Notes:

22. The College of Arms, Queen Victoria Street, London

The college of heraldry and keeper of Scotland's James IV relics

Notes:

23. Holy Grail on Hampstead Heath, Hampstead Heath

Home to those Python men and scenes from the legendary film.

Notes:

24. Madame Tussauds, Marylebone Road, Marylebone

This is where the World famous waxworks can be found.

Notes:

25. The Clink, Clink Street, London

This is where The infamous Clink once stood, notorious prison.

Notes:

26. The House by the Thames, 49 Bankside, Cardinal's Wharf, Southwark, London

The historic house, oldest on Bankside, and alleged conenctions!

Notes:

27. Wapping Pier Head, Off Wapping High Street

Designed by John Rennie in 1805

Notes:

28. Wapping Old Stairs, Nr Wapping high Street

Stairs with a gruesome history - What a whopper!

Notes:

29. The Horn and Centre Page, 29-33 Knightrider Street, St Pauls

The historic former ale house mentioned in Pickwick Papers.

Notes: