

Author: JeremyT

Morrissey, Johnny Marr and The Smiths in London

1. Home to a Mozzer, Regent's Park Terrace, Camden

Mozzer lived on this street in the 90s... but which number?

Notes:

2. Morrissey & Marr call time, 2 Farmer Street, London

Johnny Marr called a Smiths meeting here to leave the band

Notes:

3. Pop Video Morrissey Style, Lyndhurst Hall, Warden Road

Sing Your Life was filmed here with help from Chrissie Hynde

Notes:

4. Ridgeway House's Musical History, Runwick Lane, Farnham, Surrey

Former recording studio of choice to the stars.

Notes:

5. The Beeb rocks Out!, 2-22 Portland Place

Home to legendary performances from the likes of Moz

Notes:

6. Morrissey Lived Here..., Campden Hill Road, Kensington

He did indeed, on this road, but can you tell us the number?

Notes:

7. Moz and the Suedehead House, 32 Chester Square

Mozzer seen here sometime in 1987/88 recording a superb video

Notes:

8. A Post made famous by Morrissey, Tench Street / Reardon Street

Mozzer and Post can be seen on the 'Bona Drag' album artwork

Notes:

9. Geoff Travis calls Johnny Marr, Blenheim Crescent,
Marr & Rourke blagged their way in get The Smiths signed
Notes:

10. Mary Poppins author lived here, 50 Smith Street, Chelsea
The home and inspiration behind Mary Poppins.
Notes:

11. Dirk Bogarde does Chelsea, 30 Royal Avenue, off King's Road
Home to 'The Servant' starring Dirk Bogarde back in 1963
Notes:

12. Brixton Academy & The Smiths, 211 Stockwell Road
The Smiths last ever gig took place here in 1986
Notes: