

Author: ShadyOldLady

The best sites to see ancient Walthamstow in it's full splendour!

1. 1st petrol car was built here, 1 Connaught Road, Walthamstow, London

The UK's first petrol driven car was built here in 1894.

Notes:

2. First British Powered Flight, Walthamstow Marshes, London

This is where the first all British flight took place.

Notes:

3. Sir Robert Wigram lived here, Walthamstow House, London

Shipowner and MP, Sir Robert Wigram lived here.

Notes:

4. The Ancient House, Walthamstow Village, London

Walthamstow's ancient house, dating back over 600 years.

Notes:

5. The EMD Cinema, Hoe Street, Walthamstow, London

Walthamstow's last cinema, now closed and invaded by squatters.

Notes:

6. The Ferry Boat Inn, Ferry Lane, Tottenham Hale

The old ferry house became the Ferry Boat Inn in 1738.

Notes:

7. The Vestry and its Cage, Vestry Road, Walthamstow, London

The location of the Vestry workhouse and prisoners Cage.

Notes:

8. The Walthamstow Lighthouse, Lighthouse Methodist Church, 120 Markhouse Road,

The Walthamstow lighthouse, 35 miles from the sea!

Notes:

9. Walthamstow Dogs to Close, Chingford Road, London

This is where David Beckham worked as a pint glass collector.

Notes:

10. Walthamstow's Plague Pits, Vinegar Alley, Walthamstow

The site of a 17th century plague pit.

Notes:

11. William Morris' Birthplace, Elm House, 341/343 Forest Road, Walthamstow

Designer William Morris was born opposite the fire station here.

Notes: