

Author: gustafamsby

Swedish invasion

1. Filthy MacNasty's, 68 Amwell Street, Islington

Musicians favourite boozer, where Doherty was thrown out.

Notes:

2. Pete & Carl's Flat, 112a Teesdale Street, Bethnal Green

The flat that Libertines Pete and Carl shared in Bethnal Green.

Notes:

3. The Ministry of Magic, Scotland Place, Westminster, London

The entrance Harry Potter used to get into The Ministry of Magic

Notes:

4. ,

Notes:

5. ,

Notes:

6. ,

Notes:

7. ,

Notes:

8. ,

Notes:

9. ,

Notes:

10. David Bowie's Ziggy Stardust, Heddon Street, Piccadilly, London

This is the cover of The Rise and Fall of Ziggy Stardust.

Notes:

11. Oasis... in Berwick Street, Berwick Street, Soho

Oasis chose this street for What's the Story? Morning Glory.

Notes:

12. Whisky-a-Go-Go and WAG, 33 Wardour Street, Soho

Legendary club WAG was here.

Notes:

13. Camden Head, 2 Camden Walk, Camden Passage

Dating back to the 1800's, the pub is supposed to be haunted.

Notes:

14. Sherlock's Speedy Sarnie, 187 North Gower Street, Camden

'Sherlock' sandwich shop is a hit amongst tourists

Notes:

15. Amy Winehouse's Flat, 30 Camden Square, Camden

The last home of Frank and Back to Black star Amy Winehouse.

Notes:

16. London Bridge, London Bridge, Southwark, London

The oldest and infamous bridge in London.

Notes:

17. 12 Bar Club, Denmark Street, London

One of the smallest and most intimate music venues in London.

Notes:

18. Sex Pistols lived here, 6 Denmark Street, London

The legendary punk band Sex Pistols lived and rehearsed here.

Notes:

19. Elton John worked here, Mills Music, 20 Denmark Street

Elton John worked here as an errand boy for Mills Music.

Notes: